Full content plan: Oct 13 – Nov 9

Every day:

- Midday: 1 carousel. Slides go to TikTok photo mode and Instagram; the -shorts.mp4 goes to YouTube Shorts. Add a sound in each app.
- 6–9 pm: the video(s) on TikTok, Reels and Shorts, with each app's AI label on.
- Pinterest: 1–2 pins. Image files are in the pins folder; the link goes straight to the product.
- Group posts: 2× a week. Post the value in full, add a link only where the rules allow.
- Every evening: reply to every comment.

Videos: "Story video (ready)" files are already made. "Problem-first Short (to make)" uses the video prompt in problem-shorts.pdf: Kling, 37.5 credits each, or ask Claude for the free slide version.
Rules: one problem per post, no income or sales claims, label AI videos, never invent results.

The prompt I use for all 13 Etsy tags (free, copy it):

"Give me 13 Etsy tags (each max 20 characters, multi-word phrases where possible) for [PRODUCT]. Mix: what it is, who it is for, occasion, style, and use. No repeated words across more than 3 tags. Output as a comma-separated list."

I still check every tag against what I actually sell. Happy to share my title prompt too if it helps anyone.

"Review this listing text for fair housing problems, unverifiable claims and exaggerations: [TEXT]. List each issue, why it matters, and a compliant rewrite. Then give the corrected full text."

Not a replacement for your broker's review, but it catches "perfect for families" and friends before anyone else sees them.
